PERFORMANCE

You decide whether you want to have the umbilical cord blood or also the umbilical cord tissue and the stem cells it contains stored.

Storing umbilical cord blood

- Can be obtained completely painlessly.
- Is a personalised stem cell transplant for your child
- Saves your child important time in search of a suitable stem cell donation
- Helps to rebuild the blood and immune system if necessary
- Contains own stem cells that are not rejected by the body
- Contains particularly young stem cells: Younger stem cells= more favourable prognosis
- Is an approach to researching new therapies for currently untreatable diseases
- Can also used within the family after testing for suitability

Storing umbilical cord blood and umbilical cord tissue

Benefit from all the advantages of umbilical cord blood storage plus the advantages of umbilical cord tissue:

- Can be obtained just as easily and painlessly
- Contains stem cells that can form cartilage, bone, muscle and nerve cells
- Stem cells being researched for the treatment of common diseases such as osteoarthritis
